JOHN MARTIN OF MANAKINTOWN, VA (JEAN MARTAIN, HUGUENOT IMMIGRANT) AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS

by Michal Martin Farmer and Joyce Martin Murray

The Huguenots were French protestants that had been suffering religious persecution under Louis XIV during the 1600's and 1700's. The final blow came in 1686 when Louis XIV revoked the Edict of Nantes and forbade the exercise of the Protestant religion. All babies were to be baptized Catholic. Anyone found to be practicing the reform religion was put to death. The Huguenots risked death of imprisonment if they were caught trying to escape from France. Those Huguenots that managed to escape became refugees in the Netherlands, Switzerland and England. About 60,000 refugees went to England and most of these went to London. In London the Huguenots were encouraged to go to the American colonies which were in need of population.

The governor of Virginia promised land to the Huguenots if they would come and establish a settlement in Virginia. The land was near a deserted old Indian town, Monocantown, about eighty-five miles inland up the James River. The new settlement would be renamed Manakintown.

The first ship that transported Huguenots bound for Manakintown was called the Mary Ann. This ship landed at Jamestown and was met by Benjamin Harrison and William Byrd, then continued on to Hampton, Va. where the immigrants boarded another boat for the sixty mile trip up to the falls of the James River, and then twenty-five miles through the woods to their new settlement. It was late summer when the eighty-seven persons on the first ship reached Virginia and many became very sick either at Jamestown or on the trip up river to the falls.

Jean Martain left France as a passenger on the second ship bound for Manakintown. This second ship, the Peter and Anthony, was commanded by Daniel Perreau (Pero). It left London and arrived at Jamestown, 20 Sept. 1700 (new style). Of the 171 passengers on the Peter and Anthony, only 129 of these reached Manakintown and settled several miles down the river in what was called the lower settlement.

In December of 1700, an Act of the Virginia General Assembly formed a separate parish for the Huguenots. No parish boundaries were set forth in the Act, but it stated that a considerable number of French Protestant refugees had seated themselves above the falls on the James River near Manakintown on the south side of the river. In order to keep them together, the Act provided that the land they now occupy or may hereafter possess at or adjacent to said Manakintown shall be a parish of itself and be called King William Parish in the county of Henrico (Virginia). This parish was created so the Huguenots could have their own church and pastor and set their own parish tithes.

King William Parish was in Henrico Co. from 1700-1728. When Goochland Co. was formed from Henrico in 1728, the larger portion of King William Parish fell in Goochland Co. and a smaller portion remained in Henrico Co. King William was in Goochland and Henrico from 1728-1749. In 1749, King Wm. Parish in Cumberland Co. was formed from King Wm. Parish in Goochland Co. and included all of Goochland Co. that was on the south side of the James River. In 1777, Powhatan Co., Va. was formed from the portion of Cumberland Co. including the whole parish of Southam and part of King William.

Chesterfield Co. was formed in 1749. King Wm. Parish in Chesterfield Co. was formed from King Wm. Parish in Henrico in 1749 and included all that part of Henrico Co. south of the James.

10,000 acres of land was set aside by the Virginia Burgesses, 5 Dec. 1700, for the French refugees. This land was located about 20 miles west of Richmond, Va. (in present Powhatan Co.) along the south side of the James River. Each person was to be entitled to 133 acres. Narrow strips of land, one mile deep, were set off south from the James, "bounded on the north by James River, on the east by Bernard's Creek, on the west by Sallee's Creek, on the south by a line chopped into the trees as landmarks." This was known as the French line.

HUGUENOT RECORDS

Those who got meal, February, 1700: 10

Lefebvre, Martin, and Robert 3

William Byrd's List of French Refugees settled at Manakintown, 10 Nov. 1701 included:

"Isaac Lefavour & his wife & John Martin" 11

In 1714, Jean Martin is listed as follows: 12

1 femmes, 3 enfans garçons, 1 enfans filles Total 6

There was also a Guillaume (William) Martin included on the 1714 list: Guillaume Martin, 1 femmes, 3 enfans garçons, total 5. We cannot identify this William Martin at the present time.

The French in King William Parish had been exempt from taxes for seven years after arrival in 1700. When the first taxes were levied in 1707, Mr. Martin was paid 8 shillings for a gallon of wine and transportation. The vestry made a contract with Anthony Rapine to build a more substantial church to replace the 1701 church.¹³ Anthony Rapine's daughter, Mary Ann, married Jean Martain's son, Peter Martin.

Benjamin de Joux was minister of King William Parish and in Dec. of 1700 he made a list of the inhabitants which included: Jean Martain; Anthoine Guidon (Anthony Gevaudan) whose son, Thomas Gevaudan married Jean Martain's daughter, Judith Martain.

The Manakintown settlement was abandoned by 1750, but some of the Huguenots remained in King Wm. Parish and continue to live in the same area today. Jean Martain owned land outside of King Wm. Parish, in Goochland Co. during his lifetime. His children, the second generation in America, owned land in King Wm. and in other parishes and counties. Jean Martain's grandchildren, the third generation in America, began intermarrying with non-French neighbors.

The following are descendants of Jean Martain we can prove as of August, 1985:

Jean Martain (John Martin) is the progenitor; he is Generation 1. His children are Generation 2 and his grandchildren are Generation 3. Each person is identified with a generation number indicating his relationship to John Martin. This generation number is raised in the line above the persons name. Example:

John⁴ Martin (John³) (Peter²) (John¹)

The children of each person are listed in columnar form preceded by small Roman numerals. An Arabic numeral is placed in front of the Roman numeral for each child whose lineage is carried forward. When a person has a number look forward in the genealogy for the number assigned to see additional information about that child and his children.

1. John¹ Martin (Jean Martain) made his will 12 March 1736 and it was proved 15 May 1739, Goochland Co., Va. John was of St. James' Parish, Goochland Co. when he made the will, "being sick and weak." To eldest son, James Martin, all my land in Henrico Co., 447 acres and negro, Betty. To John Martin, son of John Martain my son, decd., a plantation next to Jos. Pleasants, above my dwelling house on James River. To dau., Judith Chattee and her son John Jeffodon...estate left by Thos. Jeffodon, decd. to be delivered to Remy Chasteen till John Jeffodon is of age. To son, Peter Martin, land adjoining Wm. Randolph, Jr. with land I live on after his mother's death, and negroes Daniel and Frank. To dau., Jane Martin, two negroes or 40 pounds. Twenty-five shillings to Geo. Payne to divide among the poor of this parish. To wife, Margaret Martin, for life the plantation joining Wm. Randolph, Jr. Items to be distributed at my wife's death with 1/5 to my decd. son John's children numbering 3. Exors: wife, Margaret, and son, James Martin. Wit: Giles Letcher, James Soblet.

In Henrico Co., 1 Nov. 1703, John Martin and Margaret, his wife, were granted administration for the estate of Francis Shattelin.¹⁶ Forcureance, Jean Martin and Dupuy did the inventory for the estate of David Bernerd, 9 Feb. 1715/16, Henrico Co.

John Martin received the following land grants:¹⁸

23 March 1715, 180 acres, New Land, Henrico, beginning in slash parting this and land of James Billband being part of the lower part of the last 5,000 acres surveyed for French Refugees.

23 March 1715, 444 acres, New Land, Henrico, adj. Moses Liveran, part of 1st 5,000 ac. surveyed for Fr. Refugees.

31 Oct. 1716, 92 acres, NL, Henrico, south side of James ad. Francis Sasson out of last 5,000 ac for Fr. Refugees.

11 July 1719, 400 ac., NL, Henrico, beginning in French line parting his own & Abraham Salle, out of the lower 5,000 acres surveyed for the French Refugees.

20 Feb. 1719, 182 acres, south side of the James, out of the lower part of the last part of French Refugee land.

28 Sept. 1728, 400 acres, NL, Henrico, north side of James on Drinking Hole Branch, a branch of Tuckahoe Creek, 40 shillings.

20 Feb. 1719, Margaret Martin, 118 acres, NL, Henrico on James River adj. John Forcuran, part of the 1st 5,000 ac.

John Martin adjoined the following grants:

1715, Abraham Remmy, 85 ac., NL, Henrico, James River, corner of John Martin & Anthony Trabue, part of 1st 5,000.

1716, Moses Liveran, 117 ac., adj. John Forecuran & John Martin, part of the 1st 5,000 acres.

In 1714 and 1715, Anthony Rappeene and Anthony Gevaudan received grants nearby the above grants of John Martin.

Margaret Martin presented the inventory of Nicolas Scottar on 17 July 1739 in Goochland Co. The inventory was made by John Chastain, Rene Chastain and Andrew Ammonet.

Margaret Martin (widow of John Martin) had sold the 118 acres in Henrico Co. by 1 June 1741 when a deed from Margaret Martin to Edward Randolph, Gent. was proved.²⁰ On 5 Sept. 1743, Henrico Co., Samuel Jordan sold 118 acres in Henrico adjoining James River, Samuel Jordan and John Forcuran, "part of the 1st 5,000 acres for French Refugees and granted to Margaret Martin, Feb. 1719," sold to Edward

Randolph, sold it to Jordan.²¹

The Goochland Co. Tithes for 1746 and 1747 include Margaret Martin's list.²² Both of the tithe lists were taken by James Holman.

In Goochland Co., 1752, John Martin of Goochland (grandson of John and Margaret) sold land to Charles Bates. One of the adjoining landowners was Margaret Martin, so Margaret Martin, widow of John Martin, was still living in 1752.

The early Manakintown records do not indicate that Jean Martain (John Martin) had a family when he came to Virginia in 1700. William Byrd's list in 1701 includes, "Isaac Lefavour and wife & John Martin." The 1714 Manakin Town list includes: Jean Martin with one femmes, 3 enfans garcons and 1 enfans filles, total 6.

Based on these facts it is assumed that John married Margaret in King William Parish. As stated earlier, his will named three sons, James, John and Peter, and daughters, Judith Chattee (Chastain) and Jane Martin. It is also assumed that Jane was born ca. 1715 since only 1 enfans filles is included in the 1714 list. The birthdates for all five of the children are estimates.

Children of Jean Martain (John Martin) and Margaret:²⁴

2. i. James (Jaque) Martin, b. ca. 1705
3. ii. John Martin, b. ca. 1707
4. iii. Judith Martin, b. ca. 1709
5. iv. Peter (Pierre) Martin, b. ca. 1711
- v. Jane (Janne) Martin, b. ca. 1715. She is named in her father's 1736 will and she is believed to be Janne Martin, the younger, who was godmother when Pierre and Mariane Martin baptized their son, Agtoine, in King William Parish, 27 Sept. 1737.

2. James (Jaque)² Martin (John¹) was born ca. 1705, King William Parish, Henrico Co., Va. He married Jane (Janne) Jaque and Janne Martin baptized two children in King Wm. Parish, one in 1730 and one in 1735. When Pierre and Mariane Martin baptized their son, Jean, in 1740, King Wm. Parish, Jaque Martain and Daniel Perro were godfathers and Janne Martin, wife of

Jaque, was godmother.²⁶

James Martin received by will in 1739 from his father, John Martin, 447 acres of land in Henrico Co., Va. Jaque (James) Martin was a tithe in King Wm. Parish in 1744.

Many accounts have been published about this James Martin. All the accounts we have seen state this is the James Martin who died in 1751, Chesterfield Co., Va. But, the only children of James and Jane Martin we can prove are John Peter, born in 1730, and William, born in 1735.

The James Martin who made his will 29 Oct. 1751 in Chesterfield Co., Va. named son, James Martin; daughter, Agnes Scott; son-in-law, Walter Scott and grandchildren, Elizabeth, Usseley and Reaves Scott.²⁷ There is no mention of John Peter Martin or William Martin in this James Martin's will nor have we found deeds where James Martin made provisions for John Peter and William. Further research will be done on this matter.

Children of James Martin and Jane:

- i. John Peter (Jean Pierre) Martin, b. 2 July 1730, baptized 20 July 1730, King Wm. Parish, Va. Jean Martain and Pierre Sabatie²⁸ were godfathers and Md. Martin was godmother.

William Douglas to Jane Holman, daughter of James Holman of Cumberland Co., Va.³⁰ Rev. Douglas noted in his Register that William Martin and Jane Holman were both of Manakintown at the time of the marriage.³¹

James Holman willed negroes, Boson and Austin, to his son-in-law, William Martin, in 1760. Rev. Douglas baptized two of William and Jane Martin's children.³²

1. Nansie Martin, b. 14 Jan. 1760
2. Adna Martin, b. 31 Dec. 1766

3. John² Martin (John¹)

was born ca. 1707, King William Parish, Henrico Co., Va. John Martin, of King Wm. Parish, made his will 15 March 1735. The will was recorded 3 May 1736, Henrico Co., Va.

The will gave to son, John, a plantation on the north side of the James River that my father gave me. To sons, William and Matthew, the plantation I live on after wife's death. To son, William, the lower part joining Matthew Hopson and the widow Dupree. Rest to my wife, Mary. Exors: wife, Mary; Peter Martin and William Scott. Wit: Rene Chastain, Mary Ann Martin and John Chastain.

Mary Martin, widow of John Martin, remarried to Fore. Mary Fore of King William Parish made her will 18 June 1771 in Chesterfield Co., Va. ³⁴ The will named sons, John Fore, John Martin, William Martin and Matthew Martin Alphant; and daughters, Mary Scruggs and Elizabeth Cox. Exors. were son, John Fore and William Scott, Jr. Witnesses were Richard Harris, Susanna Passans and Susanna Howlett. Her inventory was made 15 Nov. 1771 in Chesterfield Co. by John Pankey, Oba. - i. John Martin, b. ca. 1727, King Wm. Parish. John was given by will from his grandfather, John Martin, a plantation next to Joseph Pleasants above his grandfather's dwelling house on the James River. This is the same piece of property mentioned in his father's will above: "to son, John, a plantation on the north side of the James River that my father gave me."

17 Feb. 1752, John Martin of Goochland Co. sold to Charles Bates of same, 500 pds., 300 acres in Goochland Co. "given to him by his grandfather in his will." The land was bounded by Margaret Martin's line, up the river to Joseph Pleasants line to John Carlyles line, to the back lines of Richard Crouch and Mary Farrar. Wit: James Holman, Samuel Branch, John Woodward, James Bates, Gideon Cawthorn, Wilmenton Harris, Stephen Woodson. The deed was proved 16 June 1752 by ³⁵Samuel Branch, John Woodward and Gideon Cawthorn.

The above property was also adjoining James Holman, 1740-1742: On 20 May 1740, James Holman of St. James Parish, Goochland sold Robert Barber of same for 20 pds., land on the north side of the James formerly purchased of Wm. Wamack, adjoining Woodson, ³⁶Wm. Wamack, Richard Crouch and John Martin.

- iii. Matthew Martin, b. ca. 1734, d. by 1768, Goochland Co., Va., married 2 Nov. ⁴⁰1763, Goochland Co., Va. to Mary "Molly" Bullock.

The inventory of Matthew Martin of Goochland Co. was filed 23 July 1768 in Goochland. Appraisers in Hanover Co.: Pouncey Anderson, John Glen, Richard Richards. Adm.: John Bullock. Appraisers in Chesterfield Co.: Obadiah Smith, John Morriset, John For ⁴¹Matthew's slaves were Roger, Nell and Frank.

In 1771 an accounting was made for clothing, boarding and schooling for Mary, Elizabeth and Matthew Martin. ⁴²

The estate of Matthew Martin was divided in 1789 between Molly ⁴³Martin, Elizabeth Martin and Matthew Martin.

All three of the children of Matthew Martin, and Molly Bullock were baptized by Rev. Douglas. ⁴⁴

Mary Ann Rapine was the dau. of Anthony Rapine and Margaret, widow of Charles Perrault (Pero). It is said that Mary Ann Martin remarried ca. 1745 to Thomas Smith, b. 1719, d. 1786. We don't have proof of this.

Anthony Rapine of King Wm. Parish, Goochland Co., Va. made his will 10 April 1737, recorded 15 Nov. 1737.⁵⁴ He gave his wife, Margaret, 1/2 of all his property for life, then to Mary Ann and Peter Marton. Exors were wife and Peter Martin. Wit: Jos. Bingley, Daniel Perow, Stephen Forcey.

A copy of the following letter is included in the research papers of Mrs. William E. (Alice) Wallace in the library at Louisiana State University at Shreveport:

From Mrs. Delilah Martin Clift, Cartersville, Va. to James M. Martin, Greenwood, Caddo Parish, La., 1882.

My dear Jimmie,
A thousand thanks, yes ten thousand thanks dear Jimmie for your long and interesting letter. It found all of our little family well, with the exception of myself. I had a cold but am much better now.
I was born the 20th of Feb. 1800, and was of course 82 years old last Feb., 82 years old! Few live to be so old and I have been blessed with health all my life and am today active and attend to domestic affairs. I left Georgia (near Lexington) in 1820 with my mother's brother (Samuel Drake) to pay a visit to my grandmother Drake in Virginia, married here, and never returned home. My father owned a fine farm in one mile of Lexington. It is now owned by your first cousin, Mrs. P. A. P. Sims, your Uncle Bennett's daughter. He had two children, Frank and Pamela. Frank died during the war at Yorktown, Va. Pamela married a Mr. Adkins. He died. She had three daughters by Adkins, all married. About three years ago she married a Dr. Sims. He died last September. Pamela was left well off by her parents, both of whom are long since dead. Her last husband (Dr. Sims) was very rich, they had no children. At the time of his marriage his brother was Lt. Governor of Miss. Her post office is Lexington, Ga. She promised to pay me a visit this year. She is now about 43 years old. I shall continue to give a short history of your father's family.

Bennett Martin, your uncle, was the oldest, I was next oldest, then Alexander (died 2 years old) then Smithfield, then James H., then George Washington (your father) then Thomas Montgomery, then Napoleon B., then Green L. (who died quite young) then Anthony who lives at Rawhide, Ala., then Labazan, then Augustus and then Patrick Henry the youngest. I had 12 brothers. I was the only girl. They are 11 dead except James H., your Uncle Anthony and myself. Two died young, the others lived to be grown and some what advanced in years.

Now I will speak of my own family. I had three daughters and two sons, Mary Jane the oldest married a Mr. Robertson - she died at the age of 24 years and left 4 children (2 boys and 2 girls) all lived to be grown, and the three oldest died, the youngest (Berkley Robertson) lives in Richmond, Va. age 30 years. My 2nd child, Pendleton Waltheall, died during the war. Victoria Georgiana, now with me, Caldonia and Merriwether Blanton, the youngest, now living with me has managed everything all his life (since he was large enough) as my oldest son lived in Richmond. Caldonia died 18 years ago, single; my two living children Victoria and Merriwether never married.

In 1820 I told your father and all my brothers and my father and mother goodbye and expected to return home soon, but married in Virginia and never saw them again with the exception of your uncle James and Labazan-they paid me a visit - Oh! what a sad reflection to have spent a long life separated from those I so dearly love, that were nearest and dearest to me-and was left a widow with 5 little babies. The oldest was only 7 years and the youngest an infant-to battle with the cold and selfish world for an existence for them-but, thank God my infant has so managed that today I am surrounded by every comfort and cannot complain for the want of worldly comforts. We have a large tract of land highly improved, buildings all new, well stocked and watered, and heavily set in Clover and Timothy. We raise Tobacco, Wheat, Corn, Oaks, Barley, Rye, Sweet Potatoes, Irish Potatoes, in fact everything I believe. Our money crops are Wheat and Tobacco. Laborers, good men, from $8 to $10 per month and board. Very few negro women to do anything. Sometimes it is hard to get hands, as they go off to work on Railroads, but as we have an income outside of the farm it gives us no trouble. This is a beautiful country where I live, 15 miles from the Willis River Mountains and 80 from the Blue Ridge, which looks from here as if it was leashing against the heavens for support, and in one and a half miles from James River, which is 360 yards wide at this point. The lands here are level and most of it susceptible to the highest state of improvement.

You said you married a French lady—my father was a Frenchman, so you see you married your own countrylady. You have a great many relations living in the adjoining county to this, Powhatan, where your grandfather Martin and your grandmother, who was a Drake, went from. I will mention the names of some of them: Drakes, Taylors, Atkinsons, Rices, Denoons, Motleys, etc. all people who move in the best society, hold up your head Jimmie, you are no dregs or the son or grandson of dregs, but can boast of ancestors inferior to none.

I will write to your sister Margaret in a few days. I received a letter from her a few days ago which I appreciated so much. When you see your sisters give them my best love (George and Delilah). My best love and best wishes to your wife and kiss your children for me. Victoria & Merriwether join me in much love and regards to you and your family. Your affectionate aunt,

WILL OF WILLIAM MARTIN

DIXON SPRINGS, SMITH COUNTY, TENN.

This will was made 22 March 1844, proved December, 1846, recorded Smith Co., Tenn. Will Book 7, pages 83-89. The complete copy of this will was furnished by Rev. R. D. Brooks, P. O. Box 175, Carthage, Tenn. 37030, third great grandson of William Martin.

William Martin was born 26 Nov. 1765 in Orange Co., Va., the second child of General Joseph Martin and Sarah Lucas. William Martin married 29 July 1790 to Frances Ferris, b. 30 June 1771, d. 17 July 1831, Dixon Springs, Tenn. They moved to Smith Co., Tenn. in 1798 from Pendleton Dist., S. C. and lived on Dixon Creek, three miles north of Dixon Springs, Tenn. for the remainder of their lives.

Rev. Brooks descends through William Martin's daughter, Elizabeth "Betsy" Martin, born 13 Aug. 1794, Pendleton Dist., S. C., d. Sept. 1834, married Dr. Henry Brooks of Dixon Springs. Their son was Charles Dyrus Brooks, great grandfather of Rev. R. D. Brooks of Carthage, Tenn.

Know all men by these presents that I, William Martin, of Smith County and State of Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and ordain this my last will and Testament. 1st. My will is that all my just debts be paid and as Col. James H. Vaughan holds my notes for four hundred and forty Dollars borrowed money at the rate of ten per cent annum per agreement and Joseph Cartwright one hundred and fifty dollars or thereabouts on the same terms all these several notes I wish discharged with the interest of ten per cent as aforesaid 2nd. I give to my son William L. Martin in trust for my son Joseph A. Martin my negro boy Billy and one good mule or horse of fifty dollars value 3rd. I give to the children of my deceased daughter Betsy Brooks one hundred dollars each 4th. Whereas, in the year 1836 I executed two separate deeds of loan of negroes and other articles of property specified therein to my friend Alexander F. Young of Lowms County, Mississippi in trust for the use and benefit of my daughter Sally Young now of Carroll County of the said State of Mississippi which said Deeds are recorded in the proper office of the said County of Lowms Now I give unto the said Alexander F. Young, the whole of the property of every description as specified in those Deeds with the increase of the negroes, &c from the date of said Deeds until now as well as henceforward and I also give unto the said Alexander F. Young my Trustee as aforesaid one equal child's part of that portion of my Estate which shall remain after the several bequests herein specified shall be satisfied in the same way and for the purposes set forth as above in full faith and Confidence that he will let her my said daughter Sally Young have the whole of the net proceeds of said Estate thus given to him in Trust for her benefit for her use and Comfort as her needs may require during the term of her natural life and at her death my will is that the whole remainder of said estate be equally divided among the Children of her my said daughter Sally Young 5th. I give to my little Grand daughter Mary Allen Martin daughter of my son Brice dec. my negro boy Ben the oldest Child of my woman Matilda I do this on account of the said Mary Allen being sickly and infirm 6th. I give to all the children Mary Allen inclusive of my deceased son Brice F. Martin my said negro woman Matilda and her three Children Elick John & Mary and with their future increase and my negro man Fleming and also one equal child's part of the remaining portion of my estate after the several bequests herein specified shall be satisfied also one years provisions and from the peculiar Conditions of the family the most of the Children being minors my wish is that they be kept together if practicable with their Mother my daughter in law Susanna Martin she acting as their natural Guardian as such she to take possession of the property thus willed to them with this qualification that my Executors hereafter named exercise a supervising Control over the whole that is to say to prevent waste and should it appear to them at any time there is danger of this they are hereby empowered and requested to take and adopt such means (legal if necessary) as they in their discretion may think best to protect the property and for the general good of the family on the other hand if she my said daughter in law should conduct the concern discreetly which I hope she will my wish is that she keep the hole together from the proceeds of which to support the family without legal accountability during the term of her natural life or widowhood or until the Youngest of said Children living at the time Come of age or marries and that when either of these Contingencies may happen for the whole remainder of said Estate to be equally divided among said children but should the latter contingency as mentioned above take place during the lifetime of the mother my said daughter in law then and in that case in said division she is to come in for one equal Child's part that is to share and share alike with the children and as the family will be without a house I hereby authorize and request my said Executors if in their judgement it would seem for the benefit of the family to purchase for their use a small and convenient tract of land using for the purpose such part or parts of the estate devised to them as above as they may think best for the benefit of the family and that such land and premises assure to the benefit of said family finally and subject to division in the same way and purpose as is above provided the final distribution of other articles of the Estate thus bequeathed to them and such acting and doings of my said Executors, shall be recognized in the final Settlement of said Estate divided as above

7th. To my son Wilson Y. I give the west end of the Tract of land I now live on to be laid out in the following manner that is to say Beginning at a planted rock where I once had a still house the South east Corner of a tract of Three hundred & twenty acres I bought of Vincent Ridly Thence east a short distance to a small creek called Black Creek or Dog branch down that stream to its mouth where it enters into Dixons Creek Thence some three or four poles up the north bank of Dixons Creek to an Elm & Box Elder marked W. Y. & N. D. M. Thence South 54 1/2 Degrees East to a Honey Locust marked W M with an axe at a bluff of Rocks at the place where we have long been in the habit of feeding Hogs Same course through the South West corner of my Apple Orchard to a limbering apple tree marked W.Y.M. Same course to intersect the North boundary of a tract of land I sold to John Wiseman with that line West westwardly &C, to the North boundary of Samuel McMurry's Tract thence west with his line &C excluding a Lot Deeded for the Meeting House Thence go back to the beginning as above From said beginning go North with Ridleys line as aforesaid to a stake in my Peach Orchard Thence South 85 Degrees West crossing said Black Creek passing between two bushes immediately before reaching the Creek one on the South side marked W Y M and one on the North side marked S.Y. Continue same course so as just to include the fence of my note field so called which divides from that part my plantation formerly over paid by Thomas T. Young. Continue same course to the top of the ridge lying towards Elias Johns Thence North Westwardly &C along the meanders of that ridge, on its summit hugging the cove out of which the head waters of the branch running through the plantation of said Johns issues so as to intersect the West boundary of said tract bought of Ridley as above Thence South &C with my line or lines to the line of Samuel McMurry before referred to Comprising all that part of the tract I now live on included within the foregoing bounds with its appurtenances to him the said Wilson Y. his heirs & assigns. But inasmuch as by way of convenience to him in laying off this lot of land it is of more value than I can well afford to give him in land and as the said W.Y. holds my notes to the amount of four or five hundred Dollars more or less mostly for services rendered my intention and will is that the whole of these notes be discounted and surrendered in Consideration of the extra Value of this lot of land given to him Should he though be indisposed to this arrangement my will is that he be held responsible to my Estate for the Amount of Eight hundred Dollars in Consideration of said extra portion as referred to And I also give unto my said son Wilson Y. my Desk and the possession of all my papers and manuscripts except a brief sketch of my ancestry & that of my own life the latter not finished though perhaps I may yet complete it this I give to my son Joseph A.

Martin his guardian so as to have a supervising control over him to see that injustice is not done him, &C

9th. As my old negroes Major, Ginny and Is. may probably live until they become a burden and wishing in that event to provide for their comfortable maintenance in their old age I therefore give One hundred Dollars for each of them to any of my children who will take and maintain them comfortably Major and Ginny to go together And as my woman Kitty has an idiot Child named Jimmy and wishing he to go with his mother in the division of my negroes and that in such division let the encumberance of this child be estimated and the amount be deducted from the value of Kitty

Notes by Rev. R. D. Brooks:

The lot mentioned in the will that was deeded for the meeting house was for the Dixon Springs Baptist Church, originated 8 March 1800, a brick church that is active today.

The desk given by will to Wilson Y. Martin was later in the possession of Miss Laura (Laura Garrett).

William Martin's son, William L. Martin, was later attorney general of Tennessee.

I am interested in contacting anyone who has done research on the Martins in Stewart Co., Tenn. (N. W. of Nashville on the Tenn. River and bordering Trigg Co., Ky.) In particular, I would like information on the George Martin (spelled variously Martain in Warren Co., Ky. Deeds of 1805 & 1808), who patented a tract of land on the Barren River in Warren Co., Ky. (see MFQ, Vol. X, #3, Nov. 1984, pp. 150-151). Also, does anyone have any information regarding the George Martin & Robert Gililand, who received grants in Greenville Co., S. C. in 1784? Was this George Martin the brother of Amelia Martin Brockman, whose parents were Robert & Ann Easom Martin of Orange Co., Va? She died in 1808 and was buried in Clear Springs Baptist Church Cemetery, Greenville Co., S. C. (see MFQ, Vol. X, #1, May, 1984, pp. 33-34).

Following publication of my lineage on Thomas Martin and Rachel Caffery in Vol. X, #2, Aug., 1984, MFQ, I received a letter from a descendant of Elizabeth Martin who was b. ca. 1828, Tenn., 1st m. before 1850, John L. Priest/Romans, 2nd m. 9 Feb. 1866, Warren Co., Tenn., Isaac Sullivan. Elizabeth was in Van Buren Co., Tenn. from 1850 to 1900 censuses. Isaac Sullivan remarried by 1904, Luella Brimer, and had 3 children, probably in Sherwood, Tenn. Isaac d. 1912 or 1922. Information from a Sullivan descendant shows he was b. 9 Aug. 1849, Bledsoe Co., Tenn., son of James Sullivan, d. 6 Sept. 1922, Bledsoe Co., and Lucinda Jane Black, Elizabeth and Isaac Sullivan had a dau., Mary, b. Sept. 1871, Van Buren Co., Tenn., who m. 15 Aug. 1891, Van Buren Co., Tenn., Thomas D. "Pete" Martin, son of James Martin (Vol. X, #2, MFQ, p. 96) and Sarah Priest/Romans. Mary Martin was widowed and in 1910 lived in Madison Co., Ala. with 5 children. This information indicates that a correction may be required to show that Elizabeth Martin Priest/Romans was dau. of Thomas and Anna Martin rather than the Elizabeth Martin who married Robert Thomas Grissom (p. 96). I have heard from two descendants of Elizabeth Martin Grissom who do not know who her parents were. I have requested additional Van Buren Co., Tenn. court records on both Elizabeth Martins. I would like to hear from other descendants of both who may help determine who their parents were. The Van Buren Co. Historical Society has invited me to prepare an article for their 1986 Historical

In checking Greene Co., Ohio records I find John Martin's parents to be Samuel Martin and Elizabeth _____. They resided on farm just south of Bellbrook, Ohio. Samuel's estate papers were filed 6 Dec. 1843, place of residence (farm) Sugar Creek Twp., Greene Co., Ohio, farmer. Elizabeth Martin's death occurred after Samuel, possibly in 1847. Their only child I have absolute proof for is my gg grandfather, John Martin. However, I believe John and Elizabeth Martin also had the following children: Thomas; Samuel, Jr.; Ephraim; William; Tabitha; Mary Brelsford and Elizabeth Lamme. I have been through church records, cemetery records, etc., without success. There were three Samuel Martins in Greene Co., Ohio at this time. I found a power of attorney dated 15 Aug. 1818, Greene Co., Ohio, (Deed Book Vol. 7, p. 91) which gives a Samuel G. Martin of Greene Co., Ohio the power of attorney for a Josiah Wright. He is to replace Josiah as executor of the last Will and Testament of Thomas G. Martin, dec. of Warren Co., Ky. He is given authority to demand and legally obtain by suit or otherwise all monies due the estate of Thomas G. Martin, decd. in the State of Ohio and Virginia. In Vol. X, p. 156 of the Martin Family Quarterly the above will is given; however, there is not a Samuel named in the will. Help!!!
